Re-instatement of property rendered uninhabitable

- 5.1 The Landlord's repairing obligations referred to in clause 3.3 shall not be construed as requiring the Landlord to (a) carry out works or repairs for which the Tenant is liable by virtue of his duty to use the Premises in a Tenant-like manner; (b) to rebuild or reinstate the Premises in the case of destruction or damage by fire or by tempest, flood or other inevitable accident; or (c) to keep in repair or maintain anything which the Tenant is entitled to remove from the Premises.
- 5.2 If the whole or part of the Premises are destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or any other risk against which the Landlord has insured, the whole or a proportion of the Rent will cease to be payable until the Premises are reinstated and rendered habitable; unless the insurance monies are not recoverable (whether in whole or in part) because of anything done or not done by the Tenant, his family or his visitors or the damage caused by the Tenant needs to be made good or the insurer pays the costs of re-housing the Tenant. To avoid doubt the Landlord does not have to re-house the Tenant.
- 5.3 If the Premises are not made habitable within one month, either party may terminate this Agreement by giving immediate written notice to the other party unless the damage is due to anything done or not done, or negligence or misuse by the Tenant, his family or his visitors.
- 5.4 The Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 does not apply to this Agreement.
- 5.5 This Agreement is subject to all laws and statutes affecting Assured Shorthold Tenancies. If a court decides that some part of the Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the rest of the Agreement will still be valid and binding on all parties.

Service of Notices etc. by the Landlord or Agent or Tenant

- 5.6 In accordance with section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 as amended by the Recorded Delivery Service Act 1962; if the Landlord or his Agent delivers a Notice or document (and retains reasonable evidence of that delivery) required to be served under this Agreement or any Act of Parliament, to the Premises (or the last known address of the Tenant if different) by hand before 4.30pm the notice will be deemed served on the next working day; or if sent by first class post, addressed to the Tenant then the Tenant will be treated as though they have received it two working days later. A working day excludes a Saturday, Sunday or Bank Holiday.
- 5.7 In accordance with section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 as amended by the Recorded Delivery Service Act 1962; if the Tenant delivers a Notice or document (and retains reasonable evidence of that delivery) required to be served under this Agreement or any Act of Parliament, to the address of the Landlord shown at 1.3 or if the Landlord is not resident in England and Wales the alternative address shown at 1.4 (or the last known address of the Landlord if different) by hand before 4.30pm the notice will be deemed served on the next working day; or by first class post it will be deemed delivered two working days later which excludes a Saturday Sunday or Bank Holiday, addressed to the Landlord then the Landlord will be treated as though they have received it.

Surrender of the Tenancy by the Tenant

- 5.8 Strictly with the Landlord's or his Agent's prior written consent and subject to certain conditions that may include the Landlord's reasonable costs or commission associated with the re-letting of the Premises, the Tenant might be allowed to surrender or give up this Tenancy before it could otherwise lawfully be ended.

Stamp Duty Land Tax

- 5.9 The Tenant will be responsible for assessing their liability, if any and at any time, for Stamp Duty Land Tax ("SDLT") and for submitting the appropriate forms and payment to the Inland Revenue.

FORFEITURE - RIGHT OF RE-ENTRY

Important If either party to this Agreement are unsure of their rights or require further clarification of this clause they should consult a solicitor or their local Citizens Advice Bureau.

The law (Protection from Eviction Act 1977) gives a Tenant protection against arbitrary or immediate termination of their rights of occupation and the law restricts a Landlord's rights, except in certain circumstances, to evict from, or prevent a Tenant from living in Premises subject to an existing Tenancy Agreement without first obtaining a court order.

For the Landlord to commence legal proceedings to repossess the Premises based on a breach of the Tenancy (where the Tenant had failed to remedy the breach in good time), which might result in the court evicting the Tenant or issuing a court order terminating the Tenancy earlier than might otherwise be lawful; the law requires that the Tenancy Agreement contains a Forfeiture clause, sometimes referred to as a Right of Re-entry. Clause 5.10 is such a clause.

For the avoidance of doubt: In order to exercise his legal rights under this clause, 5.10, the Landlord will first need to obtain a court order

5.10 If any of the circumstances mentioned in the Housing Act 1988 Schedule 2 apply then the Landlord may re-enter the Premises and the Tenancy shall be terminated provided the Landlord has a possession order from the County Court and the court bailiff has evicted the Tenant. Full details of the Grounds are available on request. Any such action will not restrict or limit any other legal rights, which the Landlord may have in pursuing the Tenant for breaches of the Tenant's obligations under this Agreement.
