DESCRIPTION

No. 17 Richmond Place is a three-storey townhouse with original turned stair, panelling and features throughout. This row was originally built to house the artisans of Bath who helped create the city's period features, whether they were joiners, carpenters or plaster workers. The current owner is in fact an artisan himself and has lent the property a wonderful creative feel.

The property is set over three floors with an open plan ground floor comprising a sitting room, kitchen/dining room, utility, bathroom and separate WC. Doors open from the dining room to the garden full of wildflowers and a path to the oak floored garden studio which is an excellent space that could be utilised as a garden office or creative's studio gallery.

To the first floor are two bedrooms and to the top floor is a large principal bedroom and shower room. There is a gated front garden with path leading to the enclosed storm porch. The house is Grade II listed, built from honey hued ashlar Bath stone with lattice sash windows.
