DESCRIPTION

Dating back to the 16th Century this idyllic cottage offers an array of charming features throughout from original flooring to unusual pargetting, fine fireplaces and exposed honey-coloured timbers. Behind the brick-and-flint façade, this cottage provides an entrance hall and utility, with slate floor and finished in a traditional style, adjacent to this is a large family bathroom. Moving from the entrance is the dual aspect kitchen/breakfast room fitted with oak units and worktops, butler sink and an inset solid-fuel Rayburn, all with parquet floor. Like the kitchen, the sitting room enjoys double aspects, with an inglenook fireplace and log burner creating a warm and friendly atmosphere, with a further study/home office to the rear. Via the easy rising staircase, is a landing area providing access to two generous double bedrooms. Displaying exposed floorboards and fitted wardrobes. There is a cloakroom that completes the first floor.

OUTSIDE

The gardens are a key feature of the property, with outstanding, beautifully landscaped and very well stocked beds, paths and borders.

To the front are established, raised flower beds, with an attractive brick-block paved path leading you to the main gardens to the rear.

OUTSIDE CONTINUED

Here you will find laid lawns and further landscaped beds and borders full of flora, which create a truly calm and relaxing setting. The wooden summer house and seating areas are a delight. Further around, is a 'secret' rose garden through a hedge archway which brings you back to the front of the property.

To the front is parking for three cars. One of the outstanding features here is a delightful and spacious flint detached studio with light and cast iron electric radiator which provides full heating. The studio has potential to be easily converted to form a fully independent abode, ideal for holiday lets. Possibly subject to pp.

LOCATION

Great Bricett is a charming hamlet village which dates to medieval times and boasts quaint Suffolk architecture and a real 'picture postcard' feel with a church and active village hall.

The popular village of Bildeston is 4 miles away and has a village store, doctors surgery and two well regarded pubs. Stowmarket is 6.5 miles away and offers more extensive amenities such as large supermarkets and retail shops, with a mainline station taking you to London Liverpool St in 1 hour and 25 minutes .
