SUGAR POT HALL AND BUILDING PLOT, YO41 1HF

Nestled in the picturesque village of Skirpenbeck, Sugar Pot Hall is a delightful 2 bedroom cottage offering a range of characterful features. The property features a cozy living room with a wood-burning fireplace, kitchen with a dining area, conservatory, two spacious bedrooms and a house bathroom. Outside, the property boasts a pretty garden.

Additionally, a building plot with hardstanding already in place provides opportunity to build a separate home.

Planning Reference - 96/20728/PLF

Skirpenbeck is a hidden rural gem, beautifully located just 11 miles from York on the edge of a quiet village which offers easy access to the popular market towns of Malton and Pocklington. Nearby Stamford Bridge provides excellent village facilities including a convenience store, school, sports club, pubs and eateries. A very useful school bus service serves the village daily for primary school in the neighbouring village of Bugthorpe and also for Pocklington.
